

I am opposed to the LPFM stations taking over regional/national services, such as K-LOVE. K-LOVE blesses me every day with music that I cannot otherwise find on the radio. It fills a much-needed niche that is simply not otherwise available at this time and place.

People call in to K-LOVE eager to let listeners know such things as how the encouraging music on K-LOVE saved their life, especially since K-LOVE has a staff team of ministers available to call at any time. Without K-LOVE, the quality of the "air" will be greatly diminished, and I feel it safe to say that people will suffer needlessly.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Bryan Castellucci
